

Internship @ Ekkisens Art Space

ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com
ekkisens.com

ekkisens.artspace@gmail.com
ekkisens.artspace@gmail.com
ekkisens.artspace@gmail.com
ekkisens.artspace@gmail.com
ekkisens.artspace@gmail.com

- Art Space supervision -
- Installing and building of artwork -
- Event and PR management -
- Artist assistance -
- minimum stay: 2 months -

Ekkisens Art Space is an experimental art venue in the emerging contemporary art scene of Reykjavík, capital of Iceland.

It was founded in 2014 by Freyja Eilíf, a visual artist.

Ekkisens hosts at least one exhibition every month. Director Freyja Eilíf manages various other art projects travelling exhibitions and residencies.

She is an active independent artist and curator and has a workshop studio place joint to Ekkisens Art Space.

Erasmus interns from various backgrounds are welcome!
Artists, designers, writers, programmers, theorists, build workers, film workers, dancers, scientists!

Minimum of 2 month stay - you decide the MAX.

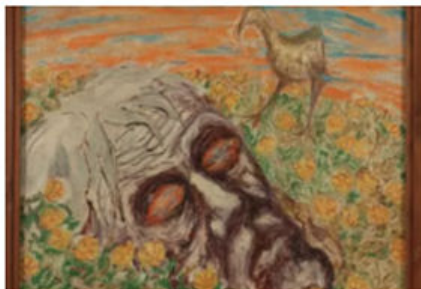

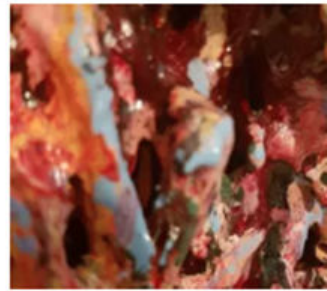

Interns at Ekkisens join Freyja Eilíf in her work at the studio, managing events at Ekkisens, supervising events the art space, installing work, bulding art work, assisting artists who are exhibiting at the space, watching over exhibitions and etc. etc.

Work is often flexible and never more than 6 hours a day, 3-4 days a week.

Internship at Ekkisens offers various oppertunities in the midst of the lively emerging Icelandic art scene.

Please contact for more detailed information about up and coming projects. Ekkisens.artspace@gmail.com

ekkisens.com

freyjaeilif.com