

in a nutshell.

Communications agency in Munich is looking for an intern (f/m)

REQUIREMENTS:

- first experiences in journalism or PR
- fluent communication skills in German and English - spoken and written
- willingness to tackle things from the very beginning

WE OFFER:

- exciting communications projects with innovative formats from Instagram to live videos
- renowned and partially international clients
- a steep learning curve - with us you won't get bored
 - a nice and cozy office in the middle of town
 - great colleagues and plenty of room for laughter

ABOUT US:

in a nutshell is a young communications agency that stands for all forms of digital corporate publishing. We emerged from the agency ROTTER: MEDIA which was founded in 2010 and rebranded ourselves to in a nutshell in 2017. With a fresh name, we create exciting stories and formats that stand out from the daily abundance of content. Whether in social media campaigns, content marketing, web design, community management or social analytics – with us you have the opportunity to become an expert in digital communications!

Please send your complete application including a letter or motivation, your CV and a confirmation of enrollment by email to: jobs@nutshell.de.

We look forward to welcome you in our team!

